

MAY 2016

mayfair times

SEASON STYLE How to stand out from the crowd
Art and Interiors special
PLUS: The RA and the ENO are shaking things up

Marie Guerlain, Brownya Rogers and Isabella Edmonstone

Lady Colin Campbell, Thierry Macquet, and Princess Olga Romanoff

The Prince of Morvi

CHANCES FOR CHILDREN AT AQUAVIT

Philanthropists, celebrities, people from the business world and royalty joined Thierry Macquet and Guy Linzee Gordon from LGM Connect at the Nordic Michelin star restaurant Aquavit in St James's Market last month to raise funds for the Chances for Children campaign by the charity Buttle UK.

Guests enjoyed a champagne reception followed by dinner in the private Stockholm room. After a witty speech by Lord Northbrook on the challenges of being a hereditary peer at The House of Lords, an auction took place, with prizes donated by Garrard; Lalique; Atmantan Wellness Resort; and artist Tushar Sabale. Guests also bought raffle tickets to win a stunning Simon Carter watch.

GRACIOUS HEART CHARITY FOUNDATION AT CHRISTIE'S

The artwork of 12 contemporary artists – produced jointly with children with cerebral palsy – went under the hammer last month at Christie's, raising more than £330,000 for the Gracious Heart Charity Foundation, which helps children with cerebral palsy, and their families.

Hosted by Simon de Pury, with a performance by singer Sophie Ellis-Bextor, the event was supported by Opera Gallery, Contini Art Gallery and Askei Gallery Moscow.

Founded by Tatiana Korsakova, the foundation, as well as providing financial help, organises projects such as this that nurture a child's artistic and creative side, enabling them to express themselves and to socialise with other people.

Simon de Pury

Tatiana Korsakova and artists

Sophie Ellis-Bextor