GOODWOOD FESTIVAL OF SPEED

Goodwood opened its doors to 200,000 spectators for its annual Festival of Speed and FoS Future Lab. Cartier MD Laurent Fenieu hosted a competition on the lawn of the Goodwood Estate for the 2019 Cartier "Style et Luxe", where car connoisseurs judged a unique and rare collection of cars.

The overall theme of the concours d'élégance was "speed kings - motorsport's record breakers". It consisted of seven different categories, with one Best of Show winner award.

Guests included champions of the automotive industry such as Daniel Ricciardo, actor Liam Cunningham, shoe designer Nicholas Kirkwood and Lord Snowdon. Overall winner of "the year's most beautiful automobile" was Nicholas Edel with his 1950 Abarth 205 Monza.
